cate of sanitary inspection issued by the Department of Agriculture and Fomento. However, with a view to avoiding annoyance and difficulty for importers of such small shipments, the Secretariat of Communications and Public Works, at the request of the said customs service, advises that the products in question may be exempted from the above-mentioned inspection certificate when their weight is less than 5 kilograms (11 pounds); but that shipments of a greater weight will be inspected by a representative of the competent Secretariat, at the request of the interested parties in each case.

A special permit from the Minister of Agriculture and Fomento is required for corn and other agricultural products from the States of Michigan, Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Maine, Rhode Island, Connecticut, Vermont, New Jersey, West Virginia, and Indiana.

Moreover, the Secretariat of Finance and Public Credit calls attention to the fact that the absence of the above certificate constitutes a violation of the customs law, and that the prescribed fines will consequently be levied; the customs can permit the forwarding and withdrawal of the arms only after the fine has been paid; pistols and other instruments for the projection of tear gas.

As an exception, the Bank of Mexico and the banks associated therewith are authorized to import bank notes exclusively for the purpose of exchange. However, the Secretariat of the Treasury and Public Credit of Mexico may prohibit the Bank of Mexico and its associated banks from importing banknotes into the country when, in the judgment of the National Banking Commission, the importation is excessive, or when the said commission deems it prejudicial to the economics of that country. Prohibited banknotes and coins and values payable to the bearer received in Mexico will be returned only when the Mexican Administration is satisfied that the articles do not have an illegal character. In case the articles are found to have an illegal character they will be confiscated. See regular mail prohibitions concerning the mailing of coins and banknotes in registered letters.
