when such port is one other than a district headquarters port. (The Customs District of the Virgin Islands, although under the jurisdiction of the Secretary of the Treasury, has its own Customs laws (48 U.S.C. 1406(i)). This district, therefore, is outside the Customs territory of the United States and the ports thereof are not "ports of entry" within the meaning of these regulations.)

(m) Principal field officer. A "Principal field officer" is an officer in the field service whose immediate supervisor is located at Customs Service Headquarters.

§ 101.2 Authority of Customs officers.

(a) Supremacy of delegated authority. Action taken by any person pursuant to authority delegated to him by the Secretary of the Treasury, whether directly or by subdelegation, shall be valid despite the existence of any statute or regulation, including any provision of this chapter, which provides that such action shall be taken by some other person. Any person acting under such delegated authority shall be deemed to have complied with any statute or regulation which provides or indicates that it shall be the duty of some other person to perform such action.

(b) Consolidation of functions. Any reorganization of the Customs Service or consolidation of the functions of two or more persons into one office which results in the failure of a designated customs officer to perform an action required by statute or regulation, shall not invalidate the performance of that action by any other Customs officer.

§ 101.3 Customs regions, districts and ports.

(a) Redesignation of Customs districts and ports of entry. The Assistant Secretary of the Treasury for Enforcement, Operations, and Tariff Affairs, pursuant to authority delegated to him by the Secretary of the Treasury, is authorized from time to time, as the needs of the Customs Service may require, to rearrange or consolidate the Customs districts, to discontinue ports of entry by abolishing them and establishing others in their place, and to change the location of the headquarters in any Customs district as the needs of the Customs Service may require.

(b) Customs regions, districts and ports of entry listed. The following is a list of Customs regions and districts, with a list of the ports in each district. (The Customs region of New York City, New York, is coextensive with the Customs district of New York City, New York). The first-named port in each district, listed in capital letters, is the headquarters port. Many of the ports listed were created by the President's message of March 3, 1913, concerning a reorganization of the Customs Service pursuant to the Act of August 24, 1912 (37 Stat. 434; 19 U.S.C. 1). Subsequent orders of the President or of the Secretary of the Treasury which affected these ports, or which created (or subsequently affected) additional ports, are cited in parentheses following the name of the ports.
