687

[EXECUTIVE ORDER.]

Amendment to Civil Service Rules.

Civil Service Rule VIII, Section 8, subdivision (a), which now reads:

"He must have received absolute appointment and have actually served in the classified service at least six months next preceding the transfer",

may be amended to read as follows:

He must have received absolute appointment and have actually served in the classified service at least six months next preceding the transfer; provided that the Civil Service Commission may waive this requirement and allow any person to be transferred to another department, bureau, commission or office, at any time within one year after his separation from the service of a department or other governmental establishment, provided that the removing officer shall certify that such person was not removed for inefficiency, and that such person shall pass an examination to be prescribed by the Commission testing his efficiency for the position to which he seeks transfer; and provided also that such person has, prior to separation, received absolute appointment and served at least six months in the department or other governmental establishment from which he was separated.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT

THE WHITE HOUSE,

September 7, 1907.

687