975

Executive Order.

It is hereby ordered that the employees in and under the several executive departments and independent government establishments, who served in the military or naval service of the United States during the Civil War and those who are members of the Women's Relief Corps and the organization of Sons of Veterans, desiring to attend the unveiling of the statue of General Philip Henry Sheridan on Wednesday, November 25, 1908, be excused from duty at 1:00 p. m. on that day.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT

THE WHITE HOUSE,
November 17, 1908.

[No. 973.]