1836

Executive Order.

In accordance with the provisions of Section 2253 of the Revised Statutes of the United States and by virtue of the authority therein given, it is hereby ordered that the boundaries of the Hailey land district in the State of Idaho be reestablished as follows:

Beginning at the southern boundary of Idaho where the range line between ranges nine (9) and ten (10) east of the Boise Meridian intersects the same; thence north along said range line, allowing for the proper offsets, to the left bank of the Salmon river; thence up the left bank of the Salmon river to a point opposite where the divide between Horse and Squaw creeks intersects the same; thence northeasterly along said divide and the divide between the drainage of the Salmon and Clearwater rivers to the intersection of same with the boundary line between Idaho and Montana; thence southeasterly along said State boundary line to its intersection with the range line between ranges twenty-nine (29) and thirty (30) east; thence south along said range line, allowing for the proper offsets, to the southern boundary of Idaho; thence west along said boundary to its intersection with the range line between ranges nine (9) and ten (10) east,—the place of beginning.

WOODROW WILSON

THE WHITE HOUSE,
October 1, 1913.

[No. 1836.]