Executive Order.

Mr. David A. Gates may be reinstated to a position of internal revenue agent in the Internal Revenue Service without reference to the period of his separation from the service.

Mr. Gates was appointed an internal revenue agent on February 11, 1895, was made chief of agents on June 20, 1906, agent in charge of division on June 1, 1908, and resigned July 10, 1909, to accept a position with the Arkansas Tax Commission, of which he has been chairman. He served satisfactorily in every capacity in which he was employed.

This order is issued on the recommendation of the Secretary of the Treasury and the Commissioner of Internal Revenue with the concurrence of the Civil Service Commission because of Mr. Gates' long and valuable experience, his efficient service, and technical knowledge of the internal revenue laws.
