Executive Order.

WYOMING.

By virtue of the power and authority vested in and conferred upon me by the laws of the United States in that behalf made and provided, it is hereby ordered that the lands hereinafter more particularly described shall be, and the same are hereby withdrawn from settlement, entry, sale and any and every other manner and form of appropriation or disposition under the public land laws of the United States, and said lands and all of them are and will be reserved to the United States so long as the continuance of such reservation shall be necessary to provide for the water supply of Fort D. A. Russell and the City of Cheyenne, in the County of Laramie, and State of Wyoming, and until such time as Congress or the President of the United States shall otherwise direct, and the withdrawal hereby made shall be unqualified and absolute, except to the extent that any of the lands herein described may be covered by valid existing rights heretofore initiated pursuant to any of the public land laws of the United States, and, further, that this withdrawal is in addition to the withdrawal made by proclamation No. 1259 on December 20, 1913.

Description.

The S½ of the N½ and the SW¼ of Sec. 28, T. 14 N., R. 70 W., Sixth Principal Meridian.

WOODROW WILSON

THE WHITE HOUSE,
27 December, 1915.
