Executive Order.

ORDER

Of restoration of certain lands included in Alaska Townsite and Railroad Withdrawal No. 2.

Whereas, by Executive order of June 23, 1914, certain lands were withdrawn, pursuant to the provisions of the act of March 12, 1914 (38 Stat., 305), and reserved for townsites and railroad purposes, or other construction work contemplated by said act; and,

Whereas, it is now made to appear that some of the tracts so withdrawn, as described below, were settled upon prior to withdrawal, and valuable improvements have been placed thereon; and,

Whereas, the Alaska Engineering Commission has reported that the said tracts so settled upon may be patented without interference with the construction of railroads in Alaska; now—

Therefore, It is ordered that the aforesaid withdrawal be, and the same is, hereby revoked as to the following tracts, viz.:

Fairbanks Meridian.
