Executive Order

CORONADO—CHIRICAHUA NATIONAL FORESTS

ARIZONA AND NEW MEXICO

Under authority of the Act of Congress of June 4, 1897 (30 Stat., 11), and upon recommendation of the Secretary of Agriculture, it is hereby ordered that on and after July 1, 1917, all the lands included within the boundaries of the Chiricahua National Forest, Arizona and New Mexico, as fixed and defined by proclamation of July 1, 1910, (No. 1066), be transferred to and administered as a part of the Coronado National Forest, Arizona and New Mexico. 36:2724

It is intended by this Executive Order, for economy of administration to merge into one National Forest, thereafter to be known as the Coronado National Forest, all the lands which on July 1, 1917, are within the Chiricahua and the Coronado National Forests, and the boundaries of the Coronado National Forest, as they exist at that date, are hereby modified accordingly.

This Executive Order is not intended to add to the Coronado National Forest any lands which on July 1, 1917, are not embraced within the Chiricahua National Forest, or to release from reservation for National Forest purposes any lands at that date within the Chiricahua National Forest.
