2702

Executive Order.

Under the provisions of the act of Congress approved August 1, 1914 making appropriations for the sundry civil expenses of the Government for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1915, the boundaries of the customs districts in the States of Texas and New Mexico are readjusted as follows:

Districts Nos. 23 and 25 are hereby abolished, and a new district, No. 23, (San Antonio) is created, this district to include all that portion of Texas lying west of the 97th degree of west longitude and east of the Pecos River. The district headquarters shall be at San Antonio, and San Antonio, Brownsville, Corpus Christi, Del Rio, Eagle Pass, Laredo, Rio Grande City, Roma, and Santa Maria shall be ports of entry in the said district. The salary of the collector of customs shall be $5000 per annum.

District No. 22 (Galveston) is enlarged by adding to it on the south the territory formerly embraced in District No. 23 (Laredo) lying east of the 97th degree west longitude. It is reduced by transferring to District No. 23 all of its present territory west of the 97th degree of west longitude; the district thus readjusted including all of the State of Texas east of the 97th degree of west longitude, except the territory embraced in District No. 21 (Sabine).

District No. 24 is enlarged by adding to its present territory all of that portion of Texas west of the Pecos River, the readjusted district to include all of the State of New Mexico, and that portion of Texas lying west of the Pecos River, with headquarters at El Paso, and in which El Paso, Boquillas, Columbus, and Presidio shall be ports of entry. The salary of the collector of customs shall be $5000 per annum.

This order will become effective October 1, 1917.
