Temporary
2806

Executive Order.

In order to effect the more expeditious construction of the proposed structure to be erected in the court of the New Bureau of Engraving and Printing building, Washington, D. C., the early completion of such building for the use of the Division of Loans and Currency of the Treasury Department engaged on work in connection with war measures creating a National emergency, and by virtue of the provisions of the Act of Congress approved March 4, 1917, entitled "An Act Making Provisions for the Naval Service for the Fiscal Year Ending June 30, 1918, and for other purposes" (39 Stat. 1192), whereby it is provided "That in case of National emergency The President is authorized to suspend provisions of law prohibiting more than eight hours labor in any one day of persons engaged upon work covered by contracts with the United States: Provided, further, that the wages of persons employed upon such contracts shall be computed on a basic day rate of eight hours work, with overtime rates to be paid for at not less than time and one-half for all hours work in excess of eight hours", I do hereby suspend the provisions of law prohibiting more than eight hours of labor in any one day by persons engaged in the construction of the above-mentioned proposed new structure. This order will take effect from and after this date.

WOODROW WILSON

THE WHITE HOUSE,
13 February, 1918.

[No. 2806.]