Executive Order

Pursuant to the powers vested in me I hereby revoke and rescind the Executive Order issued July 15, 1918, which authorized the Secretary of Labor, in the construction of buildings in the District of Columbia, to make use of certain premises hereinafter described; and

I hereby authorize the War Industries Board, for the purpose of erecting a temporary office building and maintaining and using the same during the present war emergency, to take possession of Squares 229 and 230 of the District of Columbia, such premises being owned by the United States and having not heretofore been dedicated by Act of Congress for specific buildings.

WOODROW WILSON

THE WHITE HOUSE,
September 6, 1918.
