3019-B

Executive Order

Amended

The sum of seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) is hereby allotted from the appropriation for National Security and Defense authorized in the General Deficiency Bill approved April 17th, 1917, to cover the expense of maintaining and operating the organization under Dean Edwin F. Gay known as the Central Bureau of Planning and Statistics.

This sum, together with the unexpended balances now to the credit of the Central Bureau of Planning and Statistics with the War Industries Board of the eighty-five thousand dollars ($85,000) previously allotted for the same purpose, shall be disbursed by the appropriate agent of the War Trade Board on vouchers approved by the Director of the Central Bureau of Planning and Statistics.

In addition to its present activities in connection with the continuing conspectus of the work of the Government, it shall be the duty of the Central Bureau of Planning and Statistics to secure and make available for the Peace Conference all economic statistics and data required for the use of the American delegates. To this end its representatives are authorized to request in my name all necessary information and assistance from the departments of the Government.

This order is to take effect January 1st, 1919.
