3035-A

Executive Order

In order that Bernard M. Baruch, heretofore designated as a Technical Adviser of the American Commission to Negotiate Peace, may be able properly to undertake the performance of such duties as have heretofore been, or may hereafter be, assigned to him by the American Commission to Negotiate Peace, I hereby allot to the American Commission to Negotiate Peace the sum of One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars ($150,000.00), from the Appropriation for National Security and Defense authorized in the General Deficiency Bill approved April 17, 1917; said sum to be subject to the disposal of Bernard M. Baruch for the purpose of creating and maintaining such organization, supplementary to that maintained by the American Commission to Negotiate Peace for the carrying forward of its other activities, as said Bernard M. Baruch may find necessary.

This order shall take effect this 14th day of February, 1919.

WOODROW WILSON

THE WHITE HOUSE,
February 14, 1919.

[No. 3035-A.]