Executive Order

WHEREAS, the United States Fuel Administrator acting under the authority of an Executive Order issued by me dated August 23, 1917, appointing the said United States Fuel Administrator, and all subsequent Executive Orders, and in furtherance of the purpose of said orders and of the Act of Congress therein referred to, and approved August 10, 1917, did on January 31, 1919, and on February 20, 1919, execute and issue orders suspending until further order by the President certain rules, regulations, orders and proclamations theretofore promulgated, relating to the fixing of prices, the production, sale, shipment, distribution, apportionment, storage and use of coal and coke; and whereas, by an Executive Order dated October 30, 1919, the said orders of January 31, 1919, and of February 20, 1919, were revoked and annulled to the extent set forth in the said Executive Order of October 30, 1919; and whereas it appears that it may become necessary to restore and maintain during the war certain other of the said rules, regulations, orders and proclamations.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States of America, acting under authority of the aforesaid Act of Congress, approved August 10, 1917, do hereby order and direct that the United States Fuel Administrator shall, as occasion may require, restore, change or make such rules, regulations, orders and proclamations fixing the prices or regulating the production, sale, shipment, distribution apportionment, storage or use, of all coal or coke as in his judgment may be necessary.

WOODROW WILSON

THE WHITE HOUSE,
November 5, 1919.
