An Executive

ORDER REJECTING THE BID OF JOHN H. NEUMEYER FOR CERTAIN SHARES OF THE COMMON CAPITAL STOCK OF THE VICTOR BALATA & TEXTILE BELTING COMPANY, A PENNSYLVANIA CORPORATION, OFFERED FOR SALE AT PUBLIC AUCTION ON JANUARY 5, 1920, PURSUANT TO THE "TRADING WITH THE ENEMY ACT" AND AMENDMENTS THEREOF.

By virtue of the authority vested in me by "An act to define, regulate and punish trading with the enemy, and for other purposes", approved October 6, 1917, known as the "Trading with the Enemy Act", and the amendment to such act embodied in "An act making appropriations for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1918, and prior fiscal years on account of war expenses and for other purposes", approved March 28, 1918, and the amendment to such act embodied in "An act making appropriations to supply deficiencies in appropriations for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1919, and prior fiscal years on account of war expenses and for other purposes", approved November 4, 1918, to make certain orders such as that herein contained, and all other powers and authorities me hereto enabling, I do hereby make the following determination and order:

WHEREAS, the Alien Property Custodian offered for sale at public auction in the City of Easton, State of Pennsylvania, at 2 o'clock P. M. on the 5th day of January, 1920, three hundred, thirty-three and one-third (333 1/3) shares of the common capital stock of the Victor Balata & Textile Belting Company, a Pennsylvania corporation, said shares being described as follows:

Three hundred, thirty-three and one-third (333 1/3) shares of the common capital stock of the Victor Balata & Textile Belting Company, a corporation of the State of Pennsylvania, out of a total authorized and issued capitalization of one thousand (1000) shares, of the par value of one hundred dollars ($100) each.

AND WHEREAS, the highest bid received for said stock was Forty-one Thousand, Six Hundred Sixty-six Dollars, Sixty-six and Two-thirds Cents ($41,666.66 2/3) for the entire three hundred, thirty-three and one-third (333 1/3) shares offered, which bid was made by John H. Neumeyer.

I hereby in the public interest make the following determination, direction and order:

The Alien Property Custodian is hereby authorized and shall have the right to reject all bids made at said sale, including the bid of the said John H. Neumeyer, and to resell such property at public sale.

My reason for the foregoing determination and order is that the above stated price bid for the said property is inadequate and not the fair value thereof.

Done in the District of Columbia this 29th day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty, and in the year of the independence of the United States, the one hundred and forty-fourth.
