Executive Order.

By virtue of the power conferred upon me under the Act of Congress approved August 10, 1917, entitled "An Act to provide further for the National security and defense by encouraging the production, conserving the supply, and controlling the distribution of food products and fuel," and because of the present emergency, and in order to assure an adequate supply and equitable distribution and to facilitate the movement and to prevent locally or generally scarcity of coal, I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States, do hereby order and direct that the order issued by the United States Fuel Administrator, dated November 6, 1917, and entitled "Order of the United States Fuel Administrator of November 6, 1917, Relative to Tidewater Transshipment of Coal at Hampton Roads, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, and for the Employment of and Co-operation with the Tidewater Coal Exchange, as a common Agency to Facilitate Transshipment and to Reduce Delays in the use of Coal Cars and Coal Carrying Vessels," which was suspended by order of the United States Fuel Administrator, dated February 20, 1919, be and the same is hereby reinstated from and after this date.

See No. 3240

It is further ordered that J. W. Howe, at present Commissioner of said Tidewater Coal Exchange, Rembrandt Peale, F. M. Whitaker, and J. F. Fisher, are hereby designated and appointed as my representatives to carry out the provisions of this order, they may exercise the powers reserved to the United States Fuel Administrator by said order of November 6, 1917, and they are further from and after 12:01 o'clock, A. M., on March 1, 1920, vested with the authority now vested in the Director General of Railroads relative to the export of coal from the United States.

This order shall remain in force and effect until midnight of the thirtieth day of April, 1920, at which time, unless otherwise ordered, it shall cease to be operative.

WOODROW WILSON

THE WHITE HOUSE,
25 February, 1920.
