Executive Order.

WHEREAS, in accordance with the provisions of Sections 3141 and 3142, R. S., of the United States, and by virtue of the authority thereby vested in, and conferred upon, the President, it was, on the 11th day of March, 1920, ordered that the territory included in the Sixth Internal Revenue Collection District of Virginia should be transferred to and made a part of the Second Internal Revenue Collection District of Virginia, effective July 1, 1920, that the Sixth Internal Revenue Collection District of Virginia should be abolished, and that the Second Internal Revenue Collection District of Virginia should thereafter be known as the Internal Revenue Collection District of Virginia:

It is hereby further ordered, by virtue of the authority above referred to:—

1. That Richard C. L. Moncure, of Richmond, Virginia, now Collector of the Second Internal Revenue Collection District of Virginia, be, and he hereby is, designated Collector of Internal Revenue for the said consolidated Internal Revenue Collection District of Virginia.

2. That this change shall take effect July 1, 1920.

WOODROW WILSON

THE WHITE HOUSE,
23 June, 1920.
