Executive Order

No. 3370

The Executive Order of December 16, 1920, which provides that, subject to certain limitations, four hours, exclusive of time for luncheon, shall constitute a day's work on December 24th and December 31st, 1920, for all clerks and other employees, including per diem employees, of the Federal Government and the Government of the District of Columbia in said District of Columbia, is hereby so amended as to exclude therefrom the employees of the following named bureaus and offices of the Treasury Department:

The Bureau of Engraving and Printing;
The National Bank Issue Division, Office of the Comptroller of the Currency;
The Federal Reserve Issue Division, Office of the Comptroller of the Currency;
The Division of Issue, Office of the Treasurer of the United States;
The Office of the Custodian of Paper, Division of Loans and Currency; and,
The Coupon Bond Section, Division of Loans and Currency.

All employees in the offices thus excluded whose services can be spared will be excused for the entire day on Friday, December 24th, 1920, and will perform a full day's work on Friday, December 31st, 1920.

This order is recommended by the Secretary of the Treasury who states that it will be in the interest of the Government service.

WOODROW WILSON

THE WHITE HOUSE,
21 December, 1920.
