Executive Order

It is hereby ordered that all of the land situate near the north bank of Cook Inlet adjoining the town of Kenai on the north in Alaska, reserved for use of the Department of Agriculture as an Agricultural Experiment Station by Executive Order dated January 31, 1899, be, and the same is hereby restored to the public domain, except the tract of land embracing the farm house and outbuildings, and the cleared space around said buildings described in a letter dated January 29, 1920, from Hon. George B. Grigsby Delegate from Alaska to the Secretary of Agriculture, and in a petition therewith of the residents of Kenai, as follows, all courses being magnetic: Beginning at a point four (4) rods east of the southeast corner of said farm house; thence south seventeen (17) rods to a point; thence west twenty-eight (28) rods to a point; thence north twenty-two and six seventh (22 6/7) rods to a point; thence east twenty-eight (28) rods to a point; thence south five and six seventh (5 6/7) rods to the place of beginning, containing four acres more or less.

WOODROW WILSON

THE WHITE HOUSE,
12 January, 1921.

(No. 3384.]