Executive Order.

Pursuant to the authority conferred upon me by section 9 of the Act of Congress approved August 29, 1916 (39 Stat. 547), entitled "An Act To declare the purpose of the people of the United States as to the future political status of the people of the Philippine Islands, and to provide a more autonomous government for those islands", the following military reservation in the Philippine Islands, being no longer required for the purpose for which reserved, is hereby placed under the control of the Government of the Philippine Islands to be administered for the benefit of the inhabitants thereof, as contemplated by the authority above mentioned:

Batan Military Reservation, comprising certain lands on Batan and Cacraray Islands and the adjacent submerged areas, reefs and rocks, and all of Mango and Nagtagan Islands, in the Province of Albay, Philippine Islands, as reserved by Executive Order, dated March 10, 1906, and enlarged by Executive Order, dated August 14, 1908, and further enlarged by Executive Order, dated July 1, 1909, including all private lands within the said reservation, the title to which has been acquired by the United States.
