Executive Order

It is hereby ordered that the following reservoir sites, known as the North Pablo and the South Pablo reservoirs, both within the Flathead Irrigation Project, Montana, with the surrounding lands now included within the Reclamation Service reservations, as segregated by broken lines upon the diagram hereto attached, and made a part of this Order, be and the same are hereby reserved, subject to Reclamation Service uses under the provisions of the act approved June 17, 1902, (32 Stat., 388), and to any other valid, existing rights, and are set apart for the use of the Department of Agriculture as a refuge and breeding ground for native birds.

It is unlawful for any person to hunt, trap, capture, wilfully disturb or kill any bird of any kind whatever, or take the egg of such birds within the limits of this reservation, except under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture.

Warning is expressly given to all persons not to commit any of the acts herein enumerated, under the penalties prescribed by Section 84 of the U. S. Penal Code, approved March 4, 1909 (35 Stat., 1088).

This refuge to be known as the Pablo Reservation.
