Executive Order.

Amending the Executive Order of August 8, 1918, concerning passport control so far as it applies to the entry of aliens into the United States in transit for a foreign destination.

By virtue of the authority vested in me by the Act of May 22, 1918, entitled "An Act to Prevent in Time of War departure from and Entry into the United States Contrary to the Public Safety," I, Warren G. Harding, President of the United States of America, hereby amend the Executive Order of August 8, 1918, relating to the "Rules and Regulations Governing the Issuance of Permits to Enter and Leave the United States," by the following provision:

Repealed
No. 4027

Hereafter, aliens desiring to pass through the United States en route for a foreign destination shall be allowed to enter the United States in transit for such foreign destination upon presentation of passports upon which is endorsed by a consular officer of the United States a statement that satisfactory evidence has been submitted to said consular officer of the United States that the bearer of such passport desires to enter the United States in transit only. Consular officers of the United States are hereby authorized to collect a fee of $1.00 for making such endorsement on each foreign passport. The tariff of fees to be charged by consular officers of the United States is hereby amended accordingly.
