Executive Order

Under authority of the Act of June 30, 1922, the offices of Register and Receiver of the United States land office at Dickinson, North Dakota, are hereby consolidated and the office of Receiver abolished. All the powers, duties, obligations and penalties imposed by law upon both the Register and Receiver of said office shall be exercised by and imposed upon a Register to be appointed, whose compensation shall be a salary of $500 per annum, together with the fees and commissions otherwise allowable to both Register and Receiver, but the salary, fees and commissions of such officer shall not exceed $3,000 per annum.

No. 4148

The consolidation of said offices shall become effective upon the appointment and qualification of such Register.
