3718

Executive Order

Amending Further The Provisions Of The Executive Order Of August 8, 1918, Concerning Travel Between The United States and Neighboring Countries.

Repealed
No. 4027

By virtue of the authority vested in me by the Act of Congress approved May 22, 1918, entitled, "An Act to Prevent in Time of War Departure from and Entry into the United States Contrary to the Public Safety," and the Act of Congress of March 2, 1921, entitled, "An Act making appropriations for the Diplomatic and Consular Service for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1922," and with reference to the Presidential Proclamation and Executive Order of August eight, one thousand, nine hundred and eighteen, adopted in pursuance of the Act of Congress first mentioned, I hereby prescribe the following amendment to said Executive Order:

I

Citizens of Cuba, Santo Domingo, and Haiti shall not be required to present passports, identity cards, permits, or similar documents in entering the United States directly or from any one of those countries or from Canada, Newfoundland, Bermuda, the Bahama Islands, St. Pierre, Miquelon or Mexico. If they arrive from countries other than the foregoing, however, passports or documents in the nature of passports and visas are required.

II

Aliens of any nationality, who are regularly domiciled in the United States, but who have proceeded to Canada, Newfoundland, Bermuda, the Bahama Islands, St. Pierre, Miquelon, Mexico, Cuba, Santo Domingo or Haiti, and who return directly from any one of these countries to the United States within six months of their departure, also are not required to present passports or similar documents or visas.

III

This Order shall be effective September 1, 1922.

WARREN G HARDING

THE WHITE HOUSE,
August 3, 1922.

[No. 3718]

Passports Issued

GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE