Executive Order

MONTANA – Part Lands of NF

The temporary withdrawal made by Executive Order of November 23, 1914 (No. 2092), under the Act of June 25, 1910 (36 Stat., 847), as amended, of the SE¼, Sec. 4, T. 6 N., R. 12 E., M. P. M., Montana, for use by the Forest Service as Big Elk ranger station in the administration of the Absaroka National Forest, is hereby revoked.

It is hereby ordered pursuant to Public Resolution No. 29, approved February 14, 1920, as amended by Public Resolution No. 36, approved January 21, 1922, that the above described area, subject to valid rights, shall be opened only to entry under the homestead and desert land laws by qualified ex-service men of the war with Germany, under the terms and conditions of said resolutions, and the regulations issued thereunder, for a period of ninety-one days beginning with the twenty-eighth day from and after the date of this order, and thereafter to appropriation under any public land law applicable thereto by the general public: Provided that, in the absence of a prior adverse right, the preference accorded the State of Montana under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved March 3, 1893 (27 Stat., 592), will attach immediately upon the restoration of such lands to selection and entry under the general land laws, as herein provided, and continue for sixty days.

Subsequent to this order and prior to the date of restoration to general disposition as herein provided, no rights may be acquired to said lands by settlement in advance of entry, or otherwise, except strictly in accordance herewith.
