3779

Executive Order.

Pursuant to the Act of Congress approved August 1, 1914, making provision for the sundry civil expenses of the Government for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1915, customs collection district No. 25 with headquarters at San Diego, California, is hereby abolished and consolidated with customs collection district No. 27 with headquarters at Los Angeles, California, effective February 1, 1923. The consolidated district shall include all of the territory at present covered by districts No. 25 and No. 27, and shall be under the jurisdiction of the collector of customs of district No. 27, now maintaining his headquarters at Los Angeles, California, which port shall be the headquarters of the consolidated district designated as No. 27, and in which Los Angeles, San Diego, Calexico and Tia Juana shall be ports of entry.

C.C.D.

WARREN G HARDING

THE WHITE HOUSE,
January 26, 1923.

[No. 3779.]

GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE