Department of State

Washington

August 4, 1923.

ORDER

By order of the President, flags will remain at half-staff on all public buildings of the United States until the close of Monday, September 3, 1923.

Formal calls of organizations, or of officials in a body, upon the President, will be deferred until after September 3, 1923.

There will be no official entertainments by officers of the United States prior to December 1, 1923.

Charles E. Hughes

38526