Executive Order

Diplomatic Visas for Reentry into the United States

By virtue of the authority vested in me by the Act of Congress approved May 22, 1918, entitled, "An Act to Prevent in Time of War Departure from and Entry into the United States Contrary to the Public Safety", as extended by the Act of Congress of March 2, 1921, entitled, "An Act making appropriations for the Diplomatic and Consular Service for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1922",

Repealed
No. 5435

I hereby authorize the Secretary of State to grant diplomatic visas to diplomatic and consular officers of foreign governments in the United States, to enable them to reenter this country. Such visas shall be valid during the validity of the passports upon which they are placed. The Secretary of State may grant such visas through such officials in the Department of State as he may designate, and under such rules as he may prescribe.

Diplomatic and consular officers bearing passports visaed as provided above shall not be required, in order to reenter the United States, to have their passports visaed by diplomatic or consular officers of the United States abroad.

This order shall take effect immediately.

CALVIN COOLIDGE

THE WHITE HOUSE,
April 23, 1925.
