Temporary
4418

Executive Order

Under the provisions of the Act approved March 3, 1926, making an appropriation for such expenses as the President may deem necessary in connection with the participation by the United States in the work of the Preparatory Commission which is to meet at Geneva, Switzerland, in 1926, for the purpose of making preliminary studies on the Reduction and Limitation of Armaments, which appropriation reads as follows,

> "For the expenses of participation by the United States as the President may, in his discretion, determine, in the work of the preparatory commission, which is to meet at Geneva, Switzerland, in 1926, for the purpose of making preliminary studies and preparations for a conference on the reduction and limitation of armaments; and for each and every purpose connected therewith, including compensation of employees, travel, subsistence expenses (notwithstanding the provisions of any other Act); and such other expenses as the President shall deem proper, to be expended under the direction of the Secretary of State, to remain available until June 30, 1927, $50,000."

expenditures for the following are hereby authorized to be incurred or to be authorized by the Secretary of State in his discretion but not including any expense for transportation or subsistence for the families of members or employees of the delegation:

Compensation of clerks, messengers and other employees.
Messenger service.
Courier service.
Office supplies and equipment.
Entertainment as approved by the Head of the American Representation.
Printed forms, letter heads and invitations.
Stationery.
Cleaning and toilet supplies.
Newspapers and publications.
Books, maps and charts.
Telegrams.
Telephone service.
Postage.
Freight, express, drayage and customs charges.
Rent of offices.
Purchase and rent of office furntiure and equipment.
Registration of telegraphic address.
Printing at home and abroad.
Local transportation, taxicabs, cab hire, et cetera, not including purchase or maintenance of automobiles.
Travel in accordance with the provisions of the "regulations to govern travel of diplomatic and consular officers" including travel expenses of Ambassador Houghton, London to Washington and return, under telegraphic orders of February 27, 1926, and Minister Gibson, Berne to Washington and return, under telegraphic orders of February 10, 1926.
Subsistence, actual and necessary, while en route, during the continuance of the conference, or prior thereto while engaged on work in preparation for the conference. Subsistence shall include meals, lodging, baths, laundry, tips to hotel employees and dining car and restaurant waiters, drinking water. The maximum of such subsistence, which is to be fixed by the Secretary of State, shall not exceed the following:
  For the Head of the Representation and Advisers $15.00 each a day.
  For Technical Assistants and the Secretary to the Delegation $12.00 each a day.
  For Clerks and other employees $8.00 each a day.
Such other miscellaneous items as may from time to time become necessary, except where expenditures for any such items are specifically prohibited by law.

CALVIN COOLIDGE

THE WHITE HOUSE,
April 14, 1926.

[No. 4418]

International Commissions, Conferences &c

GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE