Mrs. Cathrine E. Greenwald, widow of Mark H. Greenwald, employed in the Interstate Commerce Commission from 1908 to November 28, 1926, may be appointed to a clerical position in the classified service without reference to the civil service rules. The services of Mr. Greenwald were terminated by death and he left his widow with three minor children and without means of support. This Order is recommended by the Secretary of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The Civil Service Commission does not feel warranted in recommending the Order as demanded by the interests of the service.

Done for charity.
