Executive Order

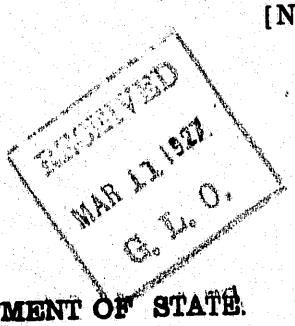

By virture of the authority vested in me as President of the United States of America, and pursuant to the provisions of Section 6 of the Act of Congress approved March 12, 1926, entitled "An Act authorizing the use for permanent construction at military posts of the proceeds from the sale of surplus War Department real property, and authorizing the sale of certain military reservations, and for other purposes," the Secretary of the Treasury having made application to the Secretary of War for the transfer thereof and given specific reasons therefor, within ninety days after the approval of the above mentioned Act of Congress, and such action having received my approval, it is hereby ordered that the portion of the Ship Island Military Reservation, in the State of Mississippi, hereinafter described, be and the same is hereby transferred to the Treasury Department for use as a quarantine station.

Beginning at a point on the North low water shore line of Ship Island, Mississippi, 1000 feet West of the Meridian of the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey triangulation station, which station is at longitude 88° 53′ 44.884″ West of Greenwich and latitude 30° 13′ 43.257″; thence along said shore line in a generally northeasterly direction to the mouth of the Grand Lagoon; thence along the meandering south low water shore line of Grand Lagoon on said Island to a point situated 3,236 feet East of said Meridian and on said low water shore line; thence due South across Ship Island approximately 1100 feet to a point on the South low water shore line of said Island; thence in a generally Southwesterly direction along the meandering South low water shore line of Ship Island to a point on said shore line 1000 feet west of the Meridian above referred to; thence due North approximately 940 feet across Ship Island to the point of beginning, as shown on map hereto attached and made a part hereof.

CALVIN COOLIDGE

THE WHITE HOUSE,
February 15, 1927.

[No. 4585]

DEPARTMENT OF STATE.

March 10, 1927.

A true copy.

Tyler Dennett

Chief, Division of Publications.