Executive Order

Mrs. Alice K. McCracken may be employed as a clerk under the Navy Department, without regard to the civil service act or rules.

This order is issued upon recommendation of the Secretary of the Navy. Mrs. McCracken's husband, Lt. Comdr. John J. McCracken, U. S. N., died at Marblehead, Massachusetts, June 29, 1926, as a result of disabilities incurred in line of duty, leaving Mrs. McCracken seven young children to support.

The Civil Service Commission is unable to concur in this recommendation.

For charity.
