Executive Order

Under authority of Section 1 of the Act of July 5, 1884 (23 Stat. 103), it is hereby ordered that the lands comprised within the Montague Island Military Reservation, Territory of Alaska, which were reserved for military purposes by Executive Order No. 960, dated October 26, 1908, the same having become useless for military purposes, be, and are hereby placed under the control of the Secretary of the Interior for disposition as provided in the above Act, or as may be otherwise provided by law.

Montague Island Military Reservation is more particularly described in said Executive Order No. 960 as follows:

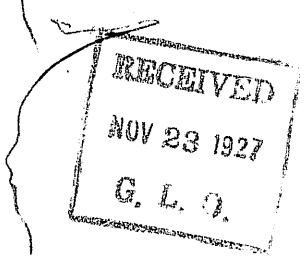

The northern part of Montague Point, Montague Island, Prince William Sound, Alaska, embracing all public lands included within metes and bounds as follows, subject to private rights, if any there be, viz:

> Beginning, for the northwest corner, at a small stone monument at high-water mark (latitude 60° 22′ 25″ north; longitude 147° 08′ 00″ west), the position of which is determined by left tangent of Seal Island bearing S. 81° W., and right tangent of Knowles Head bearing N. 12° E.; thence S. 28° E. 880 yards, to the southwest corner (latitude 60° 22′ 00″ north; longitude 147° 08′ 00″ west); thence N. 62° E. 2640 yards, to the southeast corner (latitude 60° 22′ 00″ north; longitude 147° 05′ 30″ west), the position of which is determined by right tangent of Knowles Head bearing N. 9° E.; thence following the coast line, which bounds the reservation to the northward and eastward, to the point of beginning. All bearings are magnetic.

CALVIN COOLIDGE

THE WHITE HOUSE,
November 9, 1927.

[No. 4755]

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,

November 18, 1927.

A true copy.

Acting Chief, Division of Publications.