Executive Order

Mrs. Lillian Capron may be appointed as welfare worker in the War Department without regard to the examination requirements of the civil service rules.

Mrs. Capron is the widow of Captain Allyn A. Capron, killed in action in Cuba during the Spanish War. The outstanding service of Mrs. Capron with the Red Cross and as a welfare worker at home and abroad, both in peace and in war, from the relief work in Cuba in 1899 thru the World War, seems to constitute a basis for her appointment purely on the ground of merit altho the Civil Service Commission cannot certify that the needs of the service cannot be met in the manner provided by the civil service rules.

The Secretary of War recommends the order.
