Executive Order

Mrs. Jessie H. Collier may be appointed to an appropriate position in or under the Post Office Department without regard to the requirements of the civil service rules.

Mrs. Collier is the widow of Darsie A. Collier, forty years an employee of the Post Office Department, who died on February 26, 1926, leaving her without adequate means of support.

This order is issued upon the recommendation of the Postmaster General. The Civil Service Commission is unable to concur.

For charity.
