Executive Order

Mrs. Roy K. Jones, widow of Lieutenant Commander Roy K. Jones, United States Navy, who met his death in line of duty when the submarine S–4 sank on December 17, 1927, off the coast of Provincetown, Massachusetts, may be appointed to an appropriate position in the Navy Department without regard to the examination requirements of the civil service rules.

As the Civil Service Commission can properly recommend waivers only when the procedure under the rules will not fully meet the needs of the service, it is unable to concur in the recommendation of the Secretary of the Navy for the issuance of this order.

For patriotism.

CALVIN COOLIDGE

THE WHITE HOUSE,
