Executive Order

Mrs. Kate McLaughlin may be reinstated to an appropriate position in the Government Printing Office without regard to time limit on reinstatement under the civil service rules.

This order is recommended by the Public Printer, who states that Mrs. McLaughlin is the widow of a former employee of the Government Printing Office who had a record of more than thirty-one years of competent and faithful service. His death left her without means of support. Mrs. McLaughlin was employed in the Government Printing office from January 11, 1892, to May 19, 1894.

The Civil Service Commission does not concur.

For charity.
