Executive Order

Mrs. Letitia E. Stewart may be reinstated to a clerical position in the classified service without regard to the time limit on reinstatement under the civil service rules.

Mrs. Stewart is the widow of James M. Stewart who at the time of his death, February 13, 1928, had a record of more than twenty-eight years' Government service. She served in the War Department for approximately three years and ten months and lacks less than two months' service of being eligible for reinstatement under the rules.

This order is issued upon the recommendation of the Secretary of War who states that Mrs. Stewart rendered extremely efficient and conscientious service. The Civil Service Commission submits the case without prejudice, being without authority to concur.

For charity.
