Executive Order

Mrs. Bessie L. Dudley may be reinstated as a junior clerk in the classified service without regard to time limit on reinstatement under civil service rules.

Mrs. Dudley is the daughter of a former officer of the Coast Guard Service and is a widow with a family of five children. She was employed from May 16, 1925, to March 8, 1926, in the Treasury Department, Coast Guard Service. The Department of Agriculture proposes to reinstate Mrs. Dudley to a temporary vacancy in that Department and afford her opportunity to seek permanent employment elsewhere.

The Civil Service Commission does not concur as it can recommend waiver of the rules only when demanded in the interest of the service.

For charity.
