Executive Order

Mr. Arthur J. Leck, who was originally appointed to an excepted position in the Bureau of the Census but whose position was allocated by the Personnel Classification Board as supervising special agent, a competitive classified position, may be given a competitive classified status in the position which he now holds.

This order is recommended by the Secretary of Commerce. The Civil Service Commission can not concur, but submits the case without prejudice.

CALVIN COOLIDGE

THE WHITE HOUSE,
December 18, 1928.
