Executive Order

Mrs. Loretta V. Mann, who served in the Bureau of Engraving and Printing and in the Government Printing Office from 1907 to 1916, may be appointed to an appropriate position without regard to the time limit for reinstatement. She is the widow of Howard Q. Mann, formerly a principal clerk in the Geological Survey, who left her with three children without means of support.

The Civil Service Commission cannot recommend the appointment as required by the interests of the service.

For charity.

CALVIN COOLIDGE

THE WHITE HOUSE,
