(See § 51.7 (b).)

(b) Notice of arrival. The carrier will leave a notice of arrival if he cannot deliver the certified letter for any reason. The letter will be brought back to the post office and held for you. If the letter is not called for or its redelivery requested, it will be returned at the expiration of the period stated by the sender, or after 15 days if no period is stated.

(d) Star route delivery. Star route carriers may deliver certified mail only when the addressee has authorized the postmaster in writing to give the mail to the carrier. The carrier will be required to sign for the mail and the responsibility of the postal service ends on delivery to the carrier.

(e) Delivery records. The delivery records will be held for six months. At the end of that period the records will be destroyed.

§ 58.6 Inquiry. Inquiry on Form 1510 concerning the loss of a certified letter may be made at the post office on payment of a fee of 10 cents. After a reasonable time has elapsed for the letter to have been received by the addressee, application for a duplicate return receipt may be made without charge. You must present your sender's receipt at the time an inquiry is filed or a request for a duplicate return receipt is made.

By virtue of the authority vested in the President and pursuant to Executive Order No. 10355 of May 26, 1952, it is ordered as follows:

1. The Executive Order of May 4, 1907, reserving certain public lands in Alaska pending survey and segregation for educational purposes, is hereby revoked so far as it affects the lands in the following-described area:

QUINHAGAK (KWINHAGAK)

At the mouth of the Kuskokwim River, near latitude 60°, longitude 162°: Aggregating (not to exceed) 40 acres.

2. Executive Order No. 5289 of March 4, 1930, reserving certain public lands in Alaska pending survey and segregation for educational purposes, is hereby revoked so far as it affects the lands in the following-described area:

BUCKLAND

Near latitude 66° 5', longitude 161° 5' U. S. Survey No. 2018: Aggregating 26.68 acres.

The land at Buckland is located a short distance up the Buckland River off Eschscholtz Bay in Kotzebue Sound. It is in an isolated area typical of the Seward Peninsula tundra country and has little attraction for settlement in the foreseeable future. Many thousands of acres of open, unappropriated, public lands surround this parcel.

The land at Quinbagak (Kwinbagak) is situated on the Kanektok River near the mouth of the Kuskokwim where it enters Kuskokwim Bay on the Bering Sea. At the present time this area is sparsely settled with little attraction for settlement in the foreseeable future. It, also, is surrounded by vast area of open, unappropriated, public domain.

For a period of 91 days, commencing at 10:00 a. m. on the 35th day after the date of this order the public lands affected by this order shall, subject to valid existing rights, including the rights, if any, of the Natives of Alaska, and the provisions of existing withdrawals, be subject only to settlement under the homestead laws or the Alaska Home Site Act of May 26, 1934 (48 Stat. 809; 43 U. S. C. 461), or the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938 (52 Stat. 609; 43 U. S. C. 682a), as amended, by qualified veterans of World War II and the Korean Conflict and other qualified persons entitled to preference under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. S. C. 279–284), as amended, subject to the requirements of applicable laws.

Commencing at 10:00 a. m. on the 126th day after the date of this order, any lands remaining unappropriated shall become subject to settlement, petition, location, selection or other appropriation by the public generally as may be authorized by the public land laws.

Settlement claims under the homestead laws shall be governed by the regulations contained in Parts 65 and 66, inclusive, of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations, and such claims under the Alaska Home Site Act of May 26, 1934, and the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938, as amended shall be governed by the regulations contained in §§ 64.6 to 64.10, inclusive, of that title.

Inquiries concerning the lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Fairbanks, Alaska.
