Order No. 9337 of April 24, 1943, it is ordered as follows:

Subject to valid existing rights, the following-described public land in Alaska is hereby withdrawn from all forms of appropriation under the public-land laws, including the mining and mineral-leasing laws, and reserved for the use of the Department of the Air Force:

Fire Island, located approximately in latitude 61°10′ N., longitude 150°15′ W., near the head of Cook Inlet, containing approximately 4240 acres.

That part of Executive Order No. 4131 of January 22, 1925, which restored the said area comprising Fire Island to its former status as a reserve and breeding ground for the Alaska moose, is hereby revoked.

The withdrawal made by this order shall be subject to Executive Order No. 3406 of February 13, 1921, reserving certain areas for lighthouse purposes, so far as such order affects any of the land on Fire Island.

It is intended that the land above described shall be returned to the administration of the Department of the Interior when it is no longer needed for the purpose for which it is reserved.

OSCAR L. CHAPMAN,
Secretary of the Interior.
