Title 50—WILDLIFE AND FISHERIES

Chapter I—Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife, Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior

PART 32—HUNTING

Camas National Wildlife Refuge, Idaho

The following special regulation is issued and is effective on date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

§ 32.32 Special regulations; big game; for individual wildlife refuge areas.

IDAHO

CAMAS NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE

Public hunting of big game on the Camas National Wildlife Refuge is permitted only on the area designated by signs as open to hunting. This open area, comprising 4,100 acres or 40 percent of the total area of the refuge, is delineated on a map available at the refuge headquarters and from the Regional Director, Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife, 1002 Northeast Holladay, Portland 8, Oregon.

Hunting shall be subject to the following conditions:

(a) Species permitted to be taken: Antelope.

(b) Open season: September 22, 23, 24, 1961, from one hour before sunrise to one hour after sunset.

(c) Daily bag limits: One antelope per season.

(d) Methods of hunting: Dogs may not be used in the hunting of antelope.

(e) Other provisions:

1. The provisions of this special regulation supplement the regulations which govern hunting on wildlife refuge areas generally which are set forth in Title 50, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 32.

2. Hunters will be required to report at such checking stations as may be established when entering or leaving the refuge.

3. No camping will be permitted on the refuge.

4. A Federal permit is not required to enter the public hunting area. A State antelope permit is required.

5. The provisions of this special regulation are effective to September 25, 1961.

RICHARD E. GRIFFITH,
Acting Regional Director, Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife.

AUGUST 2, 1961.
