INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION

49 CFR Part 1056

[Ex Parte No. MC-19 (Sub No. 36)]

Practices of Motor Common Carriers of Household Goods (Revision of Operational Regulations)

AGENCY: Interstate Commerce Commission.

ACTION: Notice of Availability of Corrected Copies of Form OCP-100.

SUMMARY: The Commission is making available corrected copies of Form OCP-100, Your Rights and Responsibilities When You Move. This action is taken to clarify corrections made subsequent to adoption of the Commission's final household goods operational rules and to emphasize certain later Commission decisions which affect publication of Form OCP-100 by the moving industry. This action is intended to facilitate compliance by household goods carriers with 49 CFR 1056.2.

DATE: Corrected Form OCP-100 will be available on June 3, 1981.

ADDRESS: Copies may be obtained from the Office of Consumer Protection, Room 7205, Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D.C. 20423.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Ray G. Atherton, Jr., (202) 275-7844 or W. F. Sibbald, Jr., (202) 275-7148.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission's final household goods operational rules were published at page 16200 of the March 11, 1981, Federal Register. Section 1056.2 of these rules requires that household goods carriers provide a copy of Form OCP-100, Your Rights and Responsibilities When You Move, to prospective individual shippers. The text of Form OCP-100 as published in the March 11, 1981, Federal Register, contained certain typographical errors which were corrected by Notice published in the Federal Register of April 20, 1981, at page 22594. Since the correction notice did not republish Form OCP-100 in its entirety, several persons stated that they experienced difficulties with assimilating these corrections into the original text of Form OCP-100. To accommodate those who have had problems, corrected copies of the full OCP-100 text are being made available.

The following is intended to clarify the extent to which the Commission has allowed modification of Form OCP-100.

In a Commission decision served May 7, 1981, and published at page 25621 of the May 8, 1981, Federal Register, the Commission emphasized that the main text of Form OCP-100 may not be altered. The following modifications were permitted.

- Simple declarative footnotes may be used to indicate that a particular carrier does not offer a permissive feature, option or program.
- A footnote may be used in Form OCP-100 to indicate that the carrier is furnishing prospective individual shippers a telephone information card in satisfaction of the requirement that it furnish a written description of its complaint and inquiry handling procedures, provided the card indicates whether or not collect calls will be accepted at the numbers listed and at what telephone number complaints will be taken.

Carriers may append their complaint and inquiry procedures description to Form OCP-100, may reference the Appendix in an additional item of the OCP-100 Table of Contents and may refer to the Appendix in an appropriately placed footnote to the text.

It was also held in that decision that carriers are allowed to vary the placement of Form OCP-100-A, Moving Service Questionnaire, within the OCP-100 format.

The Commission, by decision served May 27, 1981, also suspended the requirement that Form OCP-100-A be furnished as part of Form OCP-100 until January 1, 1982. This decision requires that all Forms OCP-100 printed and distributed during the suspension period which do not include the questionnaire should include a note to read: The Moving Service Questionnaire is not required to be included in booklets distributed prior to January 1, 1982. The corrected copies of Form OCP-100 available for distribution reflect this interim change.

Dated: May 29, 1981.

Agatha L. Mergenovich,

Secretary.
