The above-mentioned Executive Orders were modified in part by Public Land Order No. 933 of December 24, 1953, so as to permit the issuance of oil and gas leases.

The public lands released from withdrawal by this order lie east of the apex of the Guadalupe Mountain Range, and for the most part on its eastern slope and west of Carlsbad Caverns. The soils are shallow and generally infertile which together with the rough and mountainous topography renders the lands unsuitable for agriculture. Vegetative cover consists of grama grass, scrub oak, mesquite, and other species of semidesert shrub and brush suitable for the grazing of livestock.

No application for these lands will be allowed under the homestead, desert-land, small-tract or any other non-mineral public-land law unless the lands have already been classified as valuable or suitable for such type of application, or shall be so classified upon consideration of an application. Any application that is filed will be considered on its merits. The lands will not be subject to occupancy or disposition until they have been classified.

This order shall not otherwise become effective to change the status of the described lands until 10:00 a. m. on the 35th day after the date of this order. At that time the said lands shall become subject to application, petition, location and selection under the applicable public-land laws subject to valid existing rights, the provisions of existing withdrawals, the requirements of applicable laws, and the 91-day preference-right filing period for veterans and others entitled to preference under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. S. C. 279–284), as amended.

Veteran's preference-right applications under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747; 43 U. S. C. 279–284) as amended may be filed on or before 10:00 a. m., of the 35th day after the date of this order, and those covering the same land shall be treated as though simultaneously filed at that time. Applications filed under the act after that time and during the succeeding 91 days shall be considered in the order of filing. Applications by non-veterans under the public-land laws, filed on or before 10:00 a. m., of the 126th day after the date of this order shall be treated as though simultaneously filed at that time, where the applications are for the same lands; otherwise, priority of filing shall govern.

Inquiries concerning the lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Santa Fe, New Mexico.

ORME LEWIS,
Assistant Secretary of the Interior.
