§ 101–5.203–6 Pooling of equipment and personnel.

(a) In establishing centralized reproduction facilities in Federal buildings, GSA regional offices will make arrangements with participating agencies for the transfer of duplicating and related equipment for the centralized plant. The duplicating equipment for transfer shall be as defined in current Government Printing and Binding Regulations issued by the Joint Committee on Printing Equipment transferred to the agency operating the centralized plant shall be without reimbursement to the owning agency. Nonautomatic copy-processing machines which produce single copies only and require rehandling of the original to produce each additional copy, as well as reproduction, addressing, and automatic copy-processing equipment used in bona fide systems applications, may be retained by mutual agreement with the owning agencies. Transferred equipment which is not used in the centralized plant will be held for a period of 6 months at which time it will be disposed of by GSA in accordance with applicable regulations governing the disposal of excess property.

(b) Personnel employed in the duplicating activity of the affected agency will be identified for transfer to the operating agency upon establishment of a centralized plant, in accordance with Civil Service Commission regulations relating to the transfer of functions.

Title 50—WILDLIFE AND FISHERIES

Chapter I—Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife, Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior

PART 28—PUBLIC ACCESS, USE, AND RECREATION

Prime Hook National Wildlife Refuge, Del.

The following special regulation is issued and is effective on date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

§ 28.28 Special regulations; recreation; for the individual wildlife refuge areas.

DELAWARE

PRIME HOOK NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE

Travel by motor vehicle, bicycle, horseback, or on foot is permitted unless prohibited by posting, for the purpose of nature study, photography, hiking, and sightseeing, during daylight hours. Pets are permitted if on a leash not over 10 feet in length. Under special regulations, fishing is permitted. Public hunting may be permitted on parts of the refuge by special regulations.

The refuge area, comprising 4,642 acres, is delineated on maps available at refuge headquarters and from the office of the Regional Director, Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife, Post Office and Courthouse, Boston, Mass. 02109.

Provisions of this special regulation supplement the regulations which govern recreation on wildlife refuge areas generally, which are set forth in Title 50, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 28, and are effective through December 31, 1968.

EUGENE E. CRAWFORD,
Acting Regional Director, Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife.
