Restoring Certain Lands, and the Minerals in Other Lands, to Tribal Ownership; Partly Revoking Certain Departmental Orders; Partly Revoking the Proclamation of June 29, 1911

1. Whereas pursuant to authority contained in section 6 of the Act of June 1, 1910 (36 Stat. 455, 456), the Townsite of Parshall was established in the Fort Berthold Indian Reservation, and;

Whereas there are certain undisposed of lands within the townsite which are desired by the Indians and for which there appears to be no active public demand, and;

Whereas pursuant to authority contained in the Act of June 1, 1910 (36 Stat. 455), all nonmineral, unallotted and unreserved lands within that portion of the Fort Berthold Indian Reservation lying and being east and north of the Missouri River were opened to settlement and entry by Presidential Proclamation of June 29, 1911 (37 Stat. 1693), to be disposed of under the general provisions of the homestead laws and the said Act of Congress, and;

Whereas there are now remaining undisposed of within the opened portion of the reservation, certain lands, the minerals in which upon investigation have been found to be valuable to the Indians of the said reservation, and;

Whereas the Tribal Council and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs have recommended restoration of the townsite lands and the minerals in the opened lands to tribal ownership;

Now, therefore, by virtue of the authority contained in sections 3 and 7 of the Act of June 18, 1934 (48 Stat. 984; 25 U.S.C. 463a), I hereby find that the restoration to tribal ownership of the lands hereinafter described in this paragraph and the minerals in certain opened lands will be in the public interest, and the said lands and minerals are hereby restored to tribal ownership of the Three Affiliated Tribes of the Fort Berthold
