1905
L
348.B

MAR 29 1906
LIBRARY
DEPARTMENT OF STATE

EXECUTIVE ORDER.

In pursuance of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1894 (28 Stat. 96), making a legal public holiday the first Monday of September in each year, being celebrated and known as Labor's Holiday, employes of the Washington Navy Yard will be excused from work on Monday, September 4, 1905.

Theodore Roosevelt

The White House,

August 31, 1905.